

St. Mary Help of Christians Church Campground Association

Membership Application

St. Mary Help of Christians Church Campground is managed and operated by the Campground Association for the sole purpose of the Parish's organized groups, other non-profit organizations, and campground association. To be an active member of the Campground Association, the following requirements apply:

1. A Parish member or sponsored by a parish member
2. Financially support the campground operations through the payment of dues and pledge.
3. Serve as an active member on the Board of Directors and/or Board approved committee to manage and operate the Campground.

Please provide the information below with due payment made payable to St Mary's Church Campground. Annual dues are $100 for 2006. Members will be assigned a numbered key to gain access to the campground. If a current member chooses to not continue membership, please return your assigned key to the church office or to one of the board members.
