

THE CHOCOLATE
FESTIVAL PLANNING
COMMITTEE NEEDS
YOU TO:

1. Bake. Bake. Bake. We need whole cakes and pies. Banana and other sweet breads. Even treats that are not chocolate!!! The whole cakes and pies sold very quickly last year.
2. Plan your International Food and Frozen Casserole contributions.

Mark your calendars for the 18th Annual Chocolate Festival today!

CHOCOLATE FESTIVAL

Saturday, October 7, 2006

NOTE: There will be no Trash-To-Treasure rummage sale this year.

3. Creatively plan your Silent Auction Donations. Extra sporting event tickets, vacation getaways, artwork, collectibles and high quality crafts make excellent Silent Auction items. Donations from your business are always welcome too; free consultations or several hours of a service are popular. Contact Colleen Lucas at 648-3322 or leeney29803@yahoo.com
 4. Join the vendors in the Kindergarten playground area or the cafeteria; contact Dawn Moore at 641-6471 or dawner67@yahoo.com
 5. Be ready to donate blood at the Blood Drive
 6. Collect your used books, VHS tapes, DCs and DVDs for the Used Book Sale.
- AND
7. Spread the word to family, friends and co-workers about the Chocolate Festival on Saturday, October 7. Wear your old Chocolate Festival T-shirts around town.
